A CONFERENCE
VENUE WITH A DIFFERENCE

If you're booking your next conference in Nottingham or the East Midlands and looking for a conference venue with a difference, you need look no further than St. Johns.

VALUED IN THE COMMUNITY, INVALUABLE TO BUSINESS.

Our flexible facilities include a selection of function rooms to cater for groups as few as 20 up to 200 conference guests and our on-site accommodation means we cater for both day and residential* conferences and events.

Data projection and other audio visual equipment can be provided and on-site catering is also available.

The whole facility is set within acres of private grounds that also include ample parking for conference guests.

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION...

The Conference Centre is situated on the outskirts of Nottingham in the historic village of Bramcote.

Communication by road, rail and air is very good - we are five minutes from Junction 25 of the M1, on mainline rail networks, and have several airports within an hour's drive.

There are regular bus services to and from Nottingham City centre, and the city's network of trams is currently being extended to within a few minutes' walk of the campus and conference centre.

Standing in nine acres of tranquil grounds, St. Johns College has offered the perfect, peaceful setting for both spiritual and academic enlightenment for one hundred and fifty years.

And now its ample Conference and event facilities are available to the commercial, public services and business community at large as well as Church Groups for conferences, seminars, away days, weekends, personal study or day events.

For those enjoying a residential conference who may be staying in our on-site accommodation, the area is well-equipped for social and sporting activities with a number of parks, pubs and a leisure centre within easy walking distance.

Our central location, beautiful grounds and excellent facilities make St John's the ideal venue for your conference, retreat or away day.

ROOMS WITH A VIEW

A Grade II listed manor house sits at the heart of the site which boasts a variety of function rooms.

This means that we can easily cater for anywhere from 20 guests for an "off-site" presentation, management or staff training or Annual General Meetings, up to 200 delegates for a single day or weekend conference.

Because St. Johns is primarily a residential college we are in a unique position, being able to offer on-site catering (up to 200) and accommodation (up to 45) for residential conferences and events at very competitive rates.

We even have a camping area available for those who really want to feel like they're getting away from it all!

THE CONFERENCE CENTRE

We have a range of conference spaces and meeting rooms that can offer economical and flexible options to suit your particular requirements, including:

- Day conferences
- Residential conferences during most Summer vacations
